Event and Entry details to follow.

The inaugural (pilot) event of Navigation Trails took place last weekend, at the delightful Rydal Hall. The aim is to bring a new dimension to the world of trail running and navigation, combining stunning venues with courses designed for everyone, all ages and abilities. The event was a collaboration between members of WCOC, LOC, Warrior OC and Ambleside AC, and provided a range of courses, from the longest Epic course to short children's courses and everything in between. Those taking part could run multiple courses, and enjoy the fast and furious action at the Giant Maze. To top off the day, there was a sprint competition round the shortest 3km Blast course, which brought together the top ranked orienteers and trail runners to battle it out, ending on the run in, in front of the impressive Rydal Hall itself, including commentary from Graham Patten. Our own Jamie Rennie was part of the organising team, with courses planned by Charlie, and Helen was on enquiries all day. It was a thoroughly enjoyable, well-organised event, and a big thank you goes out to all those who put so much time and effort into making it happen. There were lots of smiling faces!

On the 3km Blast course, Jamie Rennie was top Club finisher in 3rd, with Simon Hunter 7th. Daisy Rennie was 9th, (2nd woman) and Sophie Crawford was 11th (4th woman). Others in the top 20 were Stuart Crawford 13th and Alex Crawford 15th. On the 5km Quest course, Mike Billinghurst took the win, with Lily Clarkson 2nd. Adele Newall was 9th, Kay Billinghurst 10th, and Janette McHendry 11th, and on the longest 6.5km Epic course, Phil Winskill was 3rd, Chris Naylor 8th, Stuart Crawford 9th, Daisy Rennie 10th, Glyn Blakey 13th, Sophie Crawford 14th, Jeff Goodwin 16th, and George Rennie 18th.

Scottish Championships - took place near Inverness over the weekend, the individual at Craig Leach and the relay at the lovely Roseisle. In the individual event Emma Crawford made it onto the podium in 3rd and then in the relay, Emma was part of the winning EUOC team, bringing them back in the lead after her 2nd leg run, with them taking the win with a convincing margin of over 7 minutes. Well done Emma! (Hopefully podium photos next week).

In the Open, Joe Hudd and Joe Sunley (EUOC) helped their team to 5th, just ahead of the WCOC team of Dan Heppell, Charlie Rennie and Dan Spencer in 6th.
